Mr. William J. Casey,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Dear Mr. Casey:

Although I realize the complexity of your schedule, I would once again like to extend to you an invitation on behalf of our Marshall Group to join us if possible on April 22. Our conference at that time will be devoted to Intelligence and Overseas Communications.

As mentioned previously, our Group is strictly off the record and endeavoring to do what we can in support of the President's foreign policies. We have recently completed a series of meetings, inter alia, on the complexities of the draft, registration, the AVF and our general manpower shortages in all services. Our scheduled March meeting will be on the Middle East and the Caribbean. Our Chairman is Gen. Michael Davison, and we have a number of general officers from the various services, the FBI, CIA, etc. retired but active in other private and public service fields.

We would of course value your counsel at the April conference. I did receive and appreciate [redacted] reply to our last invitation regarding our last summer's scheduling.
